Hotchkiss Insurance Agency Announces Kaycie Berley Elected as TAB Area 3 Associate Vice President

DALLAS, TX—June 13, 2006- Hotchkiss Insurance Agency, Inc. (HIA) announced the election of Kaycie Berley, association relations manager-benefits division as the new Texas Association of Builders (TAB) Area 3's associate vice president at the TAB summer board of directors session conducted this past week in Austin. TAB's area three consists of four Texas Association of Builders locals in the following cities: Houston, College Station, Beaumont and Galveston.

The vote of the Area 3 Caucus members was unanimous to elect Ms. Berley as interim Area 3 associate vice president to fill the position of retiring Robert (Bob) E. Joiner III, executive vice president of HIA, from College Station, TX. The Texas Association of Builders has seven areas throughout the State of Texas representing the 31 TAB locals. The responsibilities of an area associate vice president include visiting each respective local in their area and gathering pertinent information from each association local and promoting involvement within TAB and TAB functions. The position involves a two year term which Ms. Berley will complete in 2007.

Kaycie Berley of Houston received a degree in Journalism from Texas A&M University in 1990. Following graduation she began a career in teaching and coaching. She spent the last two years of this career as an athletic director. In 2002, Kaycie began her career in insurance working as a sales manager for Allstate Corporation, American Heritage Division managing and training agents to market and sell voluntary benefits. Kaycie is currently a manager of association relations and is based in the Houston office of Hotchkiss Insurance Agency where she develops and coordinates employee benefit plans for association groups.
